Illustrative Example:

The table below is an example comparing the mortgage interest payment during the first 36/60-month fixed rate period under Fixed Rate Mortgage Plan and standard rate mortgage plan in the prevailing market.

It is assumed that the loan amount is HK$3,000,000 with a loan tenor of 20 years, and Best Lending Rate (BLR) is at 5.25% p.a..

	Fixed Rate Mortgage		Standard mortgage plan
Mortgage interest rate	3-year Fixed Rate Mortgage with interest rate fixed at 3.18% p.a.	5-year Fixed Rate Mortgage with interest rate fixed at 3.03% p.a.	BLR-1.75% = 3.5% p.a.
Monthly mortgage instalment	HK$16,910	HK$16,683	HK$17,399
Mortgage interest payment during the fixed rate period	HK$270,783	HK$411,733	For 1 st 36 months: HK$298,570 For 1 st 60 months: HK$477,725
Comparison results	Under the prevailing market environment as noted in this example, the 3-year and 5-year Fixed Rate Mortgage can help you save up to 9% or 14% respectively in interest expenses during the fixed rate period.

Notes:

1. The above example is for reference only. The actual interest expense depends on your loan drawdown date, the first repayment date and the applicable mortgage interest rate at that moment.
2. BLR refers to the Hong Kong Dollar Best Lending Rate quoted by The Hongkong and Shanghai Banking Corporation Limited from time to time.

Mortgage Interest Rate

4. At the time you apply for the loan, you will need to make your choice of mortgage plan. Once the choice is made in your application, changes are not allowed during the fixed rate period.
5. (i) The period from the Loan drawdown date to the first Instalment Repayment Date, or (ii) each period of one month thereafter from one Instalment Repayment Date to the next is called an “interest period”. For each interest period within the fixed rate period, the mortgage interest rate will be charged at a Fixed Mortgage Interest Rate (FR) set out in the mortgage loan facility letter.
6. For any interest period after the fixed rate period, the mortgage interest rate will be set at a designated percentage (which will be set out in the mortgage loan facility letter) below the Hong Kong Dollar Best Lending Rate per annum quoted by us under the BLR-Based Mortgage Plan as at the beginning of that interest period.
7. Interest will accrue daily on the outstanding principal amount of the Loan and calculation will be based on the number of days in a calendar year ie 365 days (or 366 days in a leap year). The amount of each instalment after the fixed rate period will be as specified in the repayment advices provided to you by us. We will send to you revised repayment advices from time to time to take into account any changes in the interest rate.

8. If your last fixed rate instalment payment date falls on a holiday or non-working day (eg when typhoon no. 8 is hoisted etc.), the Fixed Mortgage Interest Rate will still be applied on that day.
9. If any part of the instalments payable during the mortgage term is not paid in full, the default interest rate will be applied to the overdue amount until the such overdue amount (together with any accrued interest) have been fully settled. The default interest rate is calculated at a percentage over the prevailing mortgage interest rate as stated in the mortgage loan facility letter.
